

Minor in Medieval or Byzantine Studies – Advanced

Name

Home Department / Program

Semester of Matriculation

I am pursuing the Advanced Minor in           __ Medieval Studies                           __ Byzantine Studies

Date of Form Submission

Graduate Courses (9 credit hours)

- must be cross-listed with the Medieval Institute OR approved by the MI / Byzantine Graduate Committee, respectively
- one course must be in a department/discipline outside the student’s home department
- one course must have a significant component of manuscript studies or manuscript-based work (normally 25% or more of instructional time or assessment, approval at the discretion of the DGS and the Graduate Committee)

Please indicate in the final column which course is interdisciplinary and which fulfills the manuscript requirement.

Course Title	Instructor	Term / Year	# of Credits	MS / Interdisc

Medieval Research Language

Medieval Studies

normally medieval Latin or Arabic, but under certain circumstances another medieval language (such as Old Norse, Old Irish, or Hebrew) is permissible, demonstrated by credit-earning coursework or passing an exam

Byzantine Studies

normally Greek, but under certain circumstances another language (such as Syriac or Coptic) is permissible, demonstrated by credit-earning coursework or passing an exam

Language
Competence demonstrated by
Date of completion

Evidence of Substantial Research in a Medieval / Byzantine Area

- Please submit the work together with this form.
- Examples include published articles, conference papers, dissertation chapters.

Title	Type (ex. Publication)	Date Submitted

Medieval Institute Academic Events or Working Groups

4 semesters of attendance, at least 2 events per semester

Event	Date

For completion by the DGS of the Medieval Institute

___ Approve

___ Deny

If the form is not approved, what further steps are necessary for the completion of the Graduate Minor?

Name of the DGS

Date